

UAE – Corporate Tax (CT) – Administration Aspects

- 1. Will businesses be required to register for UAE CT purposes?
✓ Yes. Every business required to register for the UAE CT Purpose.
- 2. How often will UAE businesses need to file a UAE CT return?
✓ Only one CT return will need to be filed per financial period. No provisional or advance CT filings will be required. A financial period is generally a year.
- 3. Will businesses be required to pay tax in advance?
✓ UAE businesses will not be required to make advance UAE CT payments.
- 4. Are there any consequences for non-compliance under the CT regime?
✓ Similar to other taxes in the UAE (e.g. VAT), businesses will be subject to penalties for non-compliance with the CT regime.

Disclaimer : The information in this page is meant to provide an initial introduction to the proposed UAE Corporate Tax (CT) regime in advance of relevant legislation being finalized and promulgated. It is not intended to comprehensively address all possible aspects of the UAE CT regime or to provide definitive answers and should not be used for individual or business decisions as it does not represent the final legislation. This document is subject to change without notice.

Call to find out more:

+971 50 359 2865

Mail Us:

support@nimai-rama.com